

Terminology linked to the new assessments – February 2014

Age Related Expectations (ARE) Children will be assessed according to the expectations of year groups.

Emerging, working below age related expectations – meeting below 33% of the objectives for a given year group

Developing, working towards age related expectations - meeting between 33% and 66% of the objectives for a given year group

Secure, working at age related expectations - meeting above 66% of the objectives for a given year group

Mastery, working above age related expectations - meeting ALL of the objectives for a given year group, plus being able to use and apply these skills to a variety of contexts.

- ☐ During much of the school year the vast majority of children will be Emerging or Developing in their ARE, as they have not yet been taught the year's objectives. By the end of the year the vast majority of children will be Secure in their ARE.

Terminology linked to the new assessment s – February 2014

Age Related Expectations (ARE) Children will be assessed according to the expectations of year groups.

Emerging, working below age related expectations – meeting below 33% of the objectives for a given year group

Developing, working towards age related expectations - meeting between 33% and 66% of the objectives for a given year group

Secure, working at age related expectations - meeting above 66% of the objectives for a given year group

Mastery, working above age related expectations - meeting ALL of the objectives for a given year group, plus being able to use and apply these skills to a variety of contexts.

- ☐ During much of the school year the vast majority of children will be Emerging or Developing in their ARE, as they have not yet been taught the year's objectives. By the end of the year the vast majority of children will be Secure in their ARE.